Rockhill Directed to Loo Kinto Every Feature of Chinese Boycott.

SOUTHERN MEN ALARMED

Senator McLaurin Presents Request From Merchants That Something Be Done.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 12.— Minister Rockhill and the consular officers in China have been instructed to look carefully into every feature of the boycott of American goods in China and report to the State Department. Complaints are being made at the State Department regarding the movement in China, but the reply has been made to all that the department has done everything possible and at present can do nothing more. The situation, as now developed, it is said, is not such as to involve the Chinese government.

Among those who have called upon Acting Secretary Loomis was former Senator John L. McLaurin, of South Carolina, who represented various Southern interests and had a market for their goods in China. The effect of the boycott has not yet been felt by Southern cotton men, who have trade, because contracts are made six months ahead. It is feared, however, that if the boycott continues the contracts will not be renewed when they expire.

WANTS FAIR PLAY.

Phlegar Against Reorganizing Until After Nomination.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, Ill., August 12.— A large body of Democrats met here in mass meeting to-day for the purpose of reorganizing the party by electing a new county chairman and county committee.
But Judge Phlegar was strongly opposed to this until after the primary, and the resolution that it might be used to the advancement or injury of the candidacy of some of the candidates, if the supporters of any particular one should be elected.

After considerable discussion the vote was taken and the meeting adjourned to the 26th, when the party will be reorganized and candidates for the Legislature and county clerk nominated.

C. A. Johnson will likely be nominated for the Legislature and H. D. Wade for county clerk.

HOPE GROWS; ENVOYS MEET AGAIN TO-DAY

suffered reverses, but she is not obliged to accept peace at any cost. She desires peace now as she always has, even before Japan opened hostilities. That Russia did not court or want war was evident by the fact that she was not prepared for it either in a military or administrative sense. Russia could possibly be properly accused of only one thing—of having given the occasion which Japan was seeking, and for which Japan had been preparing for ten years, to make war upon her.

The responsibility for the war, therefore, falls upon Japan, and not upon Russia.

It can be said, however, that although firm on the main points, Mr. Witte's response is exceedingly courteous in form and tone, and leaves the way open to discussion and negotiation if the Japanese are willing.

Is Japan Yielding?
Many of the observers at the Wentworth to-night recalled the fact that all the statements emanating from Japanese sources before the conference declared that Japan, before commencing to take up the detailed discussion of the conditions would insist upon a general agreement upon the basis. It was asserted with great positiveness that Japan would never consent to discuss the terms of the settlement until such an agreement had been reached.
From this many of the Japanese were prepared to yield. Others believe, on the contrary, that a private assurance has been given Baron Komura outside the conference chamber that Russia would discuss all the bases proposed.

Mr. Witte has arranged to attend religious services to-morrow morning. This evening he remarked laughingly: "I'm not a Japanese." He added: "I did not want a session of the conference tomorrow morning. I am a good Christian, and desire to attend services on the Sabbath. As there is an Orthodox Church here, I shall go to the Protestant Church."

It is believed that the condition discussed at to-day's meeting was the question of the evacuation of Manchuria, and the transfer of the Russian leases to Japan.

Baron Komura and Mr. Takihira dined to-night at the hotel until 10 o'clock, and did not return to the hotel until 11 o'clock. Mr. Witte, after dinner, saw a number of people, and at 10 o'clock, told the men stationed at the door that he had several hours' work before him, no further cards should be brought in. He Official Statements.

Mr. Korostov, on behalf of the plenipotentiaries, issued the following official statement regarding the afternoon session:

"The Japanese plenipotentiaries having attended the Russian answer to their conditions, the conference opened at 3 o'clock to proceed to the discussion of the articles clauses. The session was finished at 7 o'clock. Tomorrow being Sunday, there will be no session until 3 o'clock in the afternoon."

The official statement regarding this morning's session was given out by Mr.
Sato at 11:15, accompanying it with the explanation that it was an official statement, to which both sides had agreed. It is as follows:
"In the sitting of Saturday, August 12th, their excellencies, the plenipotentiaries of Russia, have handed their reply in writing to the note presented to them on Thursday. The plenipotentiaries of Japan, on their part, have decided that the next meeting will take place after the Japanese plenipotentiaries have examined and studied the reply received, which will be at 3 o'clock this afternoon or to-morrow at the same hour."

CONDITIONS ARE VERY OPPRESSIVE

(By Associated Press.)
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 12.—Conditions here so far as the arrangements for the conference of the plenipotentiaries so far from satisfactory, and in any accurate reflection of events here, it is impossible not to take notice of the complaints heard on all sides.

The fact that foreigners do not live as Americans do, has not been taken into account by the hotel management.
In addition, little effort has been made to provide for their personal comfort. For instance, the Russians, who are in the habit of drinking tea at odd times, cannot obtain their customary beverages except during regular hours. A group of foreigners were sitting on the veranda last night indulging in cooling drinks, when one of the hotel employees appeared, and without the slightest warning turned out all the lights. Immediate protest was made, but the only reply was: "Lights must be put out at 12:30."

One of the envoys, after working in his rooms until midnight, wishes something to eat, it is impossible to get it. The Russian mission was forced to leave the dining-room because Mr. Witte could not smoke while drinking his coffee. They are now crowded into a small room on the second floor where are two tables arranged close together. The Japanese preferred to forego the luxury of a cigarette with their coffee rather than sweeter in a warm room.

RUPTURE WOULD MEAN BIG BATTLE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 12.—So pessimistic was the feeling to-day among those in the confidence of both sides that the prediction was made to the Associated Press correspondents that if a meeting should be held this afternoon it would be the last and that the history of the "Washington conference" would be abruptly ended.

If the negotiations are broken off, Oyama will immediately give battle to Linovitch. The Associated Press learns from an unimpeachable source that Oyama's plans are perfected, his armies are ready and only await the signal that a rupture has occurred to launch his attack.

CELEBRATE BIRTH OF CZAREVITCH

(By Associated Press.)
ST. PETERSBURG, August 12.—7:30 P.
M.—The first anniversary of the birth of the Grand Duke Alexis, heir to the Russian throne, was celebrated in a festive manner throughout Russia to-day. In St. Petersburg the troops paraded to the music of a triumphal march, written in honor of the birth of the Czarevitch. Banners are flying in all the streets and the capital is brilliantly illuminated to-night.
A statement is published in the Official Messenger to-day announcing that the project for a national assembly has been laid before the Emperor for signature.

MANIFESTO HAS NOT BEEN ISSUED

(By Associated Press.)
ST. PETERSBURG, August 12, 8:40 A.
M.—The publication of an imperial manifesto summoning representatives of the people to a national assembly had not been made up to this hour, although the entire force on employees in the Senate printing office, where the document is to be set up, is on duty. It is understood that two drafts of a manifesto have been preparing, one coming with the solemn announcement of the imperial favor in granting representation to the people, a stirring call to arms to continue the war, if necessary, and the other providing for other contingencies.

CANDIDATES IN THE SOUTHWEST

the people have the power these evils cannot take place.

A Severe Trial.
He said the primary was his first and severest trial, and if he was elected the primary would survive and live to serve the people, but if Senator Martin was re-elected the primary would be doomed as he verily believed. That he was responsible for the primary, for when he was nominated for Governor four years ago the primary also, while if he had not we would have no primary to-day; not that he was individually responsible for it, but that he had made himself Governor made the primary, while if he had been defeated the force that defeated him would have defeated the primary.

He asked his hearers if they were going to reward the man who had opposed their rights by opposing the primary and strike down the man who had stood for the primary, when they went into the booths to prepare their ballots on the 23d of August.

The Governor closed his speech by a beautiful tribute to the ladies present and expressed his deep appreciation for the honor of having so many out to hear him. The speech was considered a very strong one, even by his opponents, and, of course, his friends are more than satisfied.

SWANSON'S FIERY REPLY TO MACKEY

Cheered to the Echo When Defending His Own Integrity.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, August 12.—Governor Swanson spoke here to-night. As he entered the hall "Dixie" was played, and he was vigorously applauded.
Mr. Swanson was introduced to his audience by George Latham Fletcher, a young lawyer of Warrenton, and though not more than 175 persons were present, the candidate had their undivided attention. Mr. Swanson would say nothing disparagingly of his opponents.
Laughingly, he referred to them as angry old maids, but not once grew vivid.

An anonymous communication, he said, has been circulated and paid for as an advertisement throughout the State by a man whose intent was to impugn his loyalty. It's an outrage on justice, truth and loyalty, and I believe my friends will rebuke it on the 23d of August.
Enthusiasm rose to a high pitch when Governor Swanson was compelled to wait until a storm of applause subsided. No man can stand before me and point to my record of fourteen years and show a single instance where I have failed to look after the interests of my people.

Here the candidate again reverted to the injustice done him by the anonymous communication, saying he could not help but express his supreme contempt for the original author.
"I am sure in his eye, Mr. Swanson made a staunch defense of himself in connection with charges of favoritism.
In contemptuous tones he denounced the charges, and in a few words his argument being better in the extreme.
Mr. Swanson's reception here to-night was a generous one, and that helped his cause materially is almost an assured fact.

MANN IN RADFORD.

Makes a History and Defense of the Mann Bill.

EAST RADFORD, VA., Aug. 12.—Judge William H. Mann spoke here tonight to an audience slightly larger than has greeted the other candidates. There were, however, more ladies and fewer voters in the crowd.

Mr. Mann was introduced by Mr.
J. F. Harris, editor of the Radford Advance. Judge Mann did not ascend the stage. He stood directly in front of the audience and talked to the people rather than made a campaign speech. His speech was a history and defense of the Mann Bill pure and simple, and the reason set forth by the speaker that he should be made Governor of Virginia was that he might look after his bill.
He said that it seemed to him the salient element dominated the Democratic party, and he made up his mind to get embodied in the statutes of the State a law that would safeguard the homes of our land. He said that when his bill was introduced, he had in mind the salient element, the women, the Methodist Conference, the Baptist Association and the Christian Church had thrown their influence in the scale, and only twenty-five out of 100 members of the Legislature had voted against the bill.

He said that he had done so against the odds and said that they would vote against it he could safely go home and not open his mouth again before the 23d of August. He asked the question: "What will you do?"

How Is Your Heart?

Is your pulse weak, too slow, too fast, or does it skip a beat?
Do you have shortness of breath, weak or hungry spells, fainting, smothering or choking spells, palpitation, fluttering, pains around the heart, in side and shoulder; or hurt when lying on left side?

If you have any of these symptoms your heart is weak or diseased, and cannot get better without assistance.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens weak hearts, and rarely ever fails to cure heart disease. Try it, and see how quickly you will find relief.

"About January 1st, 1903, I took down with weakness and drooping of the head, and gradually my health became hopeless. My neighbors and family had given me up to die. My limbs and body were swollen to one-third larger than normal size, and I had to lie in bed for two months.
For at least three months I had to sit propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I felt better than I have for twenty years, and I am able to do any kind of work on my farm. My attending physician told me that if I hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would now be in my grave."

these people now going to stand by him after he had brought the bill through, or was he to be turned out to graze?
He said that rather than see him come to his bill he would willingly renounce his ambition to be Governor.
Judge Mann had the close attention of his audience, and his speech was well received.

After the speaking Judge Mann held an informal reception, many ladies especially lingering to shake hands with him.

JUDGE MANN SPEAKS.

Heard By a Large and Representative Audience.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHRISTIANBURG, August 12.— Judge William H. Mann addressed a large and representative audience of Democratic voters here this afternoon, as well as a number of ladies and a few Republicans. His speech was on a high plane, and was well received, being often and loudly applauded. He was opposed to lending any more convicts to the Davis Shoe Company, but was in favor of a plan to put them on the public roads of the State, to be worked with the jail prisoners for the betterment of the highways, which are so much in need of improvement.

He stated that the excuse for dishonest elections no longer existed; that every man ought to vote as he pleased, and the vote should be counted as cast. He said that the special stress upon that part of his platform advocating good roads, improvement of the public school system, and aid for the old Confederate soldiers. In dealing with the Mann law he stated that while he introduced the bill, he did not pass it; that it was done by the Democratic Legislature; only twenty-five members of the Legislature voted against it, and 40,000 people petitioned the Legislature to pass it, and while it was called the Mann bill, yet its true name was the "people's bill," for it could never have been passed had not the people been behind it.

He declared that above everything else he was a Democrat, and after the 23d of this month he would be the standard-bearer of the party or he would not be. He said that he was in a great fight which he is to take place in the State this fall.

MONTAGUE IN GILES.

Makes a Winning Speech to a Large Audience.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PEARISBURG STATION, VA., August 12.—Governor Montague spoke here today to a good crowd of voters from the various sections of the county, and in which were many of the best of the men along the lines of his other speeches in the State, except he was not as strong in his remarks about Senator Martin as his other speeches have been reported to be. He said nothing personal about Senator Martin, only about his political views, and Mr. Montague was compelled to wait until a storm of applause subside. No man can stand before me
have failed to look after the interests
of my people.

The Governor is keeping up remarkably well under the strain now being compounded by his remarks to-day were in his usual vigorous way, and met with the hearty approval and frequent applause of his friends.

OVER 100 CASES ADDED TO LIST

agent of fruit vessels but they did not tween Dr. White, Dr. Souther, and which are in any modifications of the order.

It is admitted that not all the cases embraced in the daily official totals are yellow fever. Even at the emergency hospital, to which the worst cases are referred, a large number of cases have been finally diagnosed as malaria or typhoid fever. But all suspicious cases are turned in by inspectors and doctors and go at once into the yellow fever list. There is no correction of the list if a certain diagnosis shows the suspicious case to be not yellow fever.

Dr. White's appeal to physicians to report suspicious cases to-day had a marked effect. The number of doctors who visit the emergency hospital, and who report cases was larger than at any time since the fever appeared.
The marine hospital service has made so good an impression that confidence in these more willingness to report cases to health officers.

One of those who died to-day of yellow fever was Carl A. Schaal, a newspaper reporter. Schaal covered assignments in the infected quarter and lived nearby.
His wife was stricken with yellow fever some time ago, and he was assisted in nursing her back to health before he was stricken. He came from Fort Wayne, Ind., several years ago, and was thirty years old.

Preachers of various churches to-morrow will renew appeals for assistance in stamping out yellow fever.

NEGRO LYNCHED.

Shot and Seriously Wounded Man Acting As Quarantine Guard.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONROE, La., August 12.—Reports to-day from Bros say that one of the negroes, who shot and seriously wounded a white man, has been lynched. Mr.
Saunders is a merchant at Bros, and was acting as quarantine guard when shot.

Quarantine Service.

(Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, August 12.—With reference to the request of the State Board of Tennessee that the public health and marine hospital service, Surgeon-General Wyand, said to-day that Surgeon General Wyand is in charge of the Marine Hospital Service in that territory, an officer in whom he had perfect confidence, and he would be instructed to take such steps as might be necessary to protect all interests concerned.

Vardaman's Quarantine.

(By Associated Press.)
JACKSON, Miss., August 12.—Governor Vardaman has issued a letter to members of the Legislature, asking permission to borrow sufficient funds to maintain the State quarantine at a station in the State for an indefinite period. A majority of the members of the two houses have signified their willingness to reimburse a loan of this nature and to endorse any financial measure the Governor may adopt.

The official report to-night states that there is not a single case of yellow fever in the State, and that no suspicious cases under investigation.

Mrs. G. Brooks Doggett has gone on a visit to "Coke Grove," the residence of her father, Mr. Wm. H. Anderson, in Essex county, Va. Her son, David, accompanied her.

CITIZENS ADDRESS THE PRESIDENT

Civil Service Violated By the Removal of Eubank and Morecock.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., August 12.— Captain J. E. B. Stuart, collector of customs, to-day said that it was merely a coincidence that all six of the men who had suffered by the changes made by him this week were Democrats. He went on to say that the newspapers had not given him a "fair deal"; that only one side of the case had been given.
No more changes were made at the custom house to-day. The four Democratic inspectors who have lost their positions are still at work, but they are preparing to leave the service. Tuesday Deputy Collector E. N. Eubank and Chief Inspector Edloe Morecock became ordinary inspectors Tuesday.

It is understood that a number of the tion for Lieutenant-Governor, were to be asked to suggest a higher office, hundreds of admirers, he would not lose his another word or make another pen stroke in behalf of his own candidacy, for his friends say that his election is something more than assured—that it will be well-nigh unanimous.

Mr. Ellyson, like all the other candidates, has been writing a good many letters, but in nearly every case his friends, in replying, tell him to quit wasting ink and paper, as his efforts are needless.
The State Chairman does not lose his strength on his supporters in any one section. He is strong everywhere, for the people, one and all, tell him that they cannot soon forget his faithful, disinterested party services, which for years have been given to the Virginia Democracy without a murmur and with a lavish disregard for his own ends.

In not a few cases the supporters of Mr. Ellyson express the deepest regret that he is not seeking a higher office.
Many say that he is entitled to anything he wants in the way of political honors.

who will vote against Mr. Ellyson for Lieutenant-Governor, we have not been able to hear of him.—Gate City Herald.

Faithful Taylor Ellyson.

The voters of the State will surely cover themselves with shame if they fail to nominate for Lieutenant-Governor that faithful and efficient old servant Taylor Ellyson.—Hollywood Correspondence in
